Shah Cheragh Mausoleum in Shiraz-Iran and today's ignorant and idiotic pseudo-Muslims

Or how the End of Islam was programmed by the Criminal Western Colonials

What follows is my conversation with a Muslim Egyptian friend who knows nothing about Iran (although he should – like all the other Muslims across the Earth) and saw for the first time in his life (he is 55) a video about the very well-known Islamic monument Shah Cheragh (شاه چراغ) in Shiraz, Iran.

My friend found the monument extravagant, sumptuous, opulent or unnecessarily exquisite in a rather provocative manner; of course, the monument reflects Islamic Art perfectly well, whereas my friend represents today's wrong Muslims' disastrous ignorance, false religion, and personal nothingness.

Many non-Muslim friends and readers will ask me the reason for such situation. This is easy for me to answer, although few people have an idea about this topic, which has always been systematically an scrupulously concealed.

My Egyptian friend's wrong comments are due to
a) his personal ignorance and wrong understanding of Islam,
b) the devilish, anti-Islamic education imposed in Egypt (and throughout the Muslim world) as Islamic,
c) the uneducated (and at the same time falsely educated) sheikhs, imams, muftis, theologians and cadis (jurisprudential authorities, and
d) the prevailing, fake and erroneous Islam, which involves many false principles, worthless values, and disgusting indoctrination with heretic, absurd, heinous and barbaric concepts. All these calamitous notions were only recently (namely after Napoleon's campaign and Egypt's subsequent detachment from the Ottoman Empire) projected onto the Egyptians and later onto other targeted Muslim nations by the criminal Western colonials and their pathetic and silly local stooges.

My Muslim Egyptian friend's brief comment about Shah Cheragh

Shah Cheragh mausoleum!
This is the first time for me to hear about and see it.
Why all this exaggeration?
The interior design is a total exaggeration!
Why is it so?

My response

My goodness! I lived in Shiraz. I was there many times.
You have to spend some time to learn about Iran.
Whatever it may be, Shah Cheragh Mausoleum is not the most exquisite, splendid and majestic monument that exists. There are many other edifices, notably palaces, which are far more impressive and exquisite. Go through this link:
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Shah_Cheragh

And even more importantly through this:
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ayeneh-kari
This is the artistic technique of decoration as per this style. Go to the section Gallery at the end of the entry:
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ayeneh-kari#Gallery
There you will find other venues that are similarly or more exquisitely decorated.
From there, proceed to their respective links!

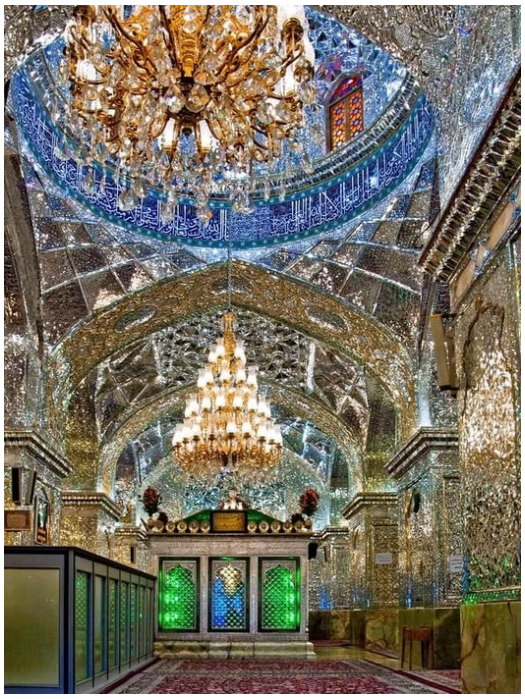
Truly speaking, there is no answer to your question. It is not an exaggeration!

There is no exaggeration in Art.

As you can read in the Wikipedia, the monument underwent several architectural innovations and improvements from the 13th to the 18th-19th c. What you see dates mainly back to the period 1550-1750.

This, my friend, is going to be very difficult for you (and for millions or hundreds of millions of Muslims) to understand. But it is not only about this monument or all the Iranian monuments. It also concerns Islamic and non-Islamic monuments in Mughal India, Central Asia, Ottoman Empire, China and Russia.

For me, it is quite interesting that you say these words, although I could certainly anticipate it. The reason is double:



First, you never felt (let alone realized) what an Empire is. I remember that once we were speaking in Nile Hilton roof garden and I told you that neither Egypt nor Iraq nor Algeria nor any other Arabic speaking country can possibly have a foreign policy. It was around 2007, when I wrote an article that the Russian News Agency INOSMI translated into Russian. In it I was describing almost what I told you that evening, namely that for Russia the only Muslim countries that could potentially matter were (are) Turkey and Iran and that all the other countries are useless trash.

This is the article in English:
https://www.academia.edu/26051442/Russia_Islam_and_the_West_by_Muhammad_Shamsaddin_Megalommatis
And this is the Russian translation that I republished:
https://www.academia.edu/26051219/РОССИЯ_ИСЛАМ_И_ЗАПАД_Мухаммед_Шамсаддин_Мегаломатис

The reason for which I said this to you was exactly what you ask me now! You cannot have a foreign policy when you don't find this monument normal and not exaggerated.

The unprecedented misery of finding Shah Cheragh Mausoleum as "totally exaggerated" means that you have a so detrimental complex of inferiority as regards empires, universal governance, imperial spirituality and moral, majestic authority, sublime art, epic culture, heroic legends, and transcendental conceptualization of World History that you cannot distinguish between the 'civilized' and the 'barbaric'.

I still remember that, in the discussion we had at the time, I also told you that, if there is another, a third, country that can be added to the list (after Turkey and Iran), it is Pakistan - but only under the condition of reassessing correctly and expressing genuinely Mughal Imperial authority in their governance.

In fact, the condition stands also for Turkey and Iran.

The problem with Iran, during all these last years and decades, is that the trash of the Ayatollahs cannot reproduce the imperial administration and therefore the imperial foreign policy of the past. This is due to the fact that all those pathetic worms with silly, pseudo-religious education do not know what the important is and where the power lies.

If Iran was totally secular, there would not be war, because Israel would not dare attack. Why? Because imperial foreign policy means beforehand knowing your opponent in-depth! Do not misread me! I do not imply that the bogus-royal Pahlavi regime was better or more Iranian! Not at all! Instead of being a modernized, secular imperial administration, it was a miserably nationalistic kingdom that endangered the country's integrity. But if, due to imperial governance, Iranians were able to have departments of Jewish, Rabbinical and Talmudic studies (to meticulously study and learn the History of Judaism in its integrity), they would certainly be able to mobilize Israeli and American Jews against Netanyahu. Then, no war would take place.

The same is valid for Turkey. The filthy monkey Erdogan and his fake religion that has nothing to do with the true Islam (which -amongst others- involves exactly this type of monuments that you found exaggerated) destroy Turkey because they replace the imperial tradition of the Eastern Romans and the Ottomans with their shit of theology and the stupidity that religion and politics can coexist.

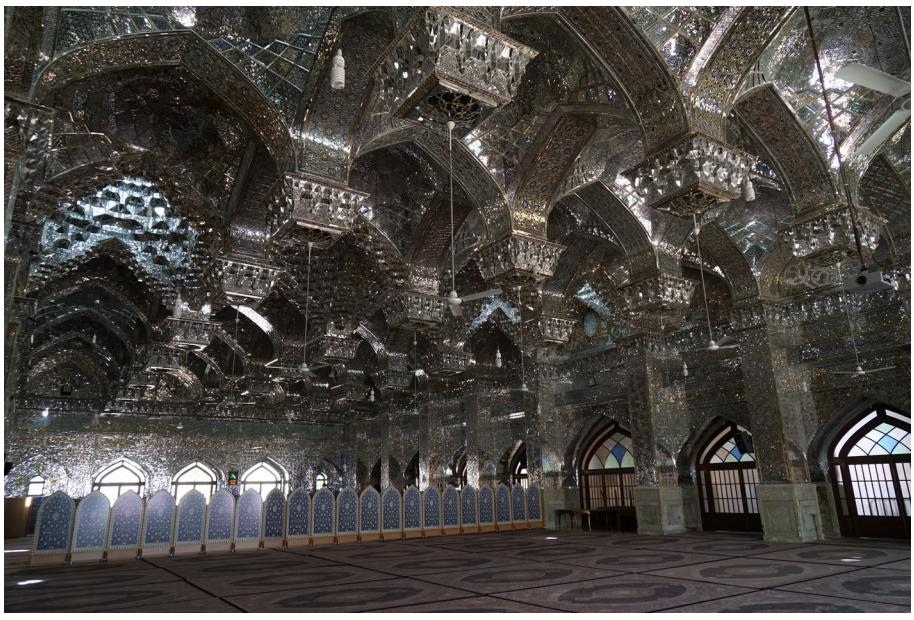
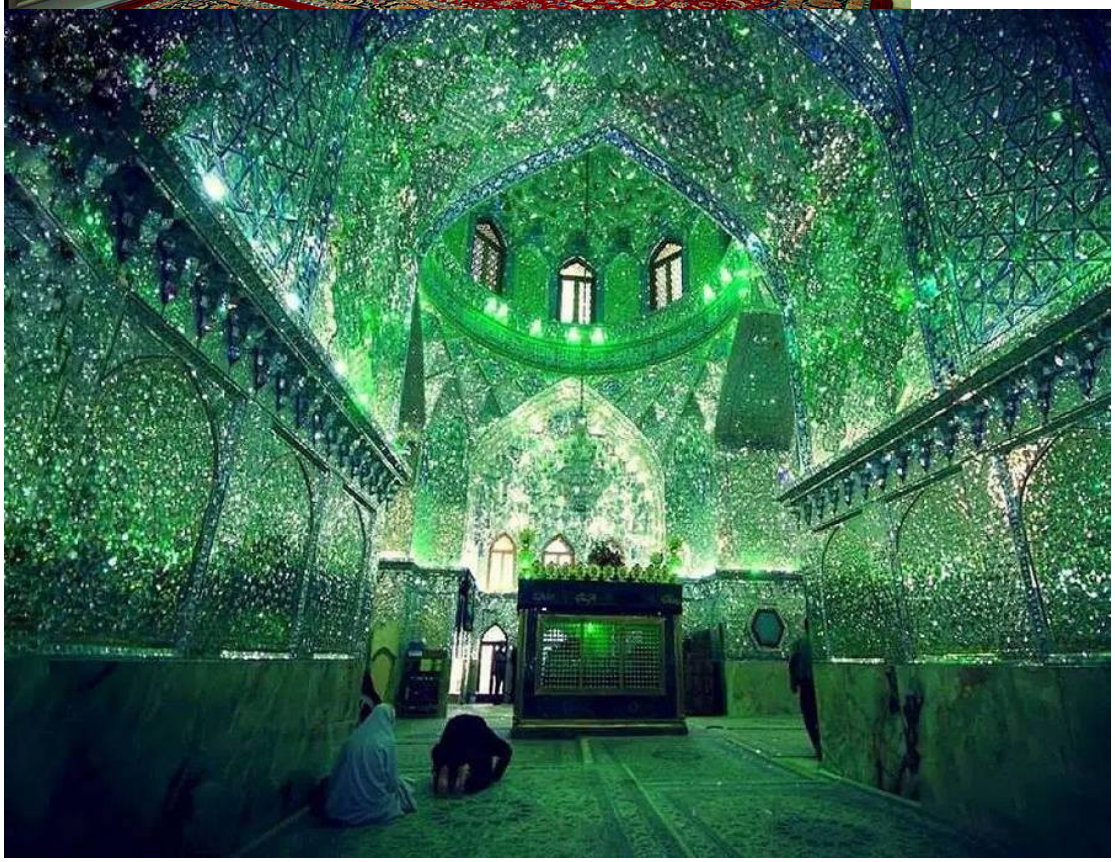
I said earlier "first, you never felt (let alone realized) what an Empire is". This was the first point.

Second, you never imagined what true History is. Everything that you know is an amalgamation of lies imposed on you as History by your colonial masters. You have no past and no heritage, because you never studied, learn, and value them; you never comprehended them, because if you did, you would realize that Edfu and Philae are more important than Mecca or Medina. And I don't mean this only for others, but also for Muslims.

But all these Iranian monuments and similar monuments in India and Pakistan (the Great Mughal Empire of Hindustan created even more exquisite monuments), as well as in parts of the Ottoman Empire, are the reflection of the lives of true Muslims who had a science, a wisdom, a spirituality, and arts that no other civilization ever reached in World History. This is the true Islam.

And because the aforementioned undeniable fact cannot be manipulated by the filthy incestuous colonial gangsters (whose disgusting slave you are), they hired some silly and ignorant pseudo-Muslim rascals, they made them care about the years prophet Muhammad lived (when there was no empire in the worthless and dusty village of Mecca) and these idiotic sheikhs of Al Azhar, etc. made of Mecca and Medina their worthless examples when preaching. That's why disaster fell on all Muslims who followed this stupid model.





Baghdad of Harun al Rashid, Shiraz, Ghazni, Herat, Samarqand, Delhi, Isfahan, Agra, etc. these are the centers of Islamic empire, civilization, culture, and spirituality.
It is stupid to read the Quran and not Al Biruni.
It is idiotic to read the Hadith and not Ibn Sina.

You all are not Muslims, because you accept the Satanic medicine of the Western pseudo-science and not the spiritual-material science of Medicine as exemplified by Ibn Sina.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Canon_of_Medicine

Not to speak at all about Ancient Egypt!

You still do not realize that you all stand in front of a lethal false dilemma. You think that in life you can follow
-either the path of silly and ignorant sheikhs like the uneducated idiot Metwalli Shaarawi
-or the path of the westernized idiotic Egyptians (and we both know many people like them), who imitate the lifestyle of those who are determined to eliminate the entire Islam.

The truth is exactly in the middle.
This means many things, many texts, and many monuments like Shah Cheragh in Shiraz.
The English did not have any building like that.
The Germans, the Austrians, the Italians and the Spaniards did not have anything like that either.

And in the Versailles Palace, the French had to shed cologne everywhere in order to cover the disgusting smell from the hidden shitholes.

Watch this to see what disgusting filth the Versailles Palace was!
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8VHsRLUJ64Y

And you, stupid Egyptians, instead of learning the decipherment of the Egyptian hieroglyphics first, disregarded it and even sold to the Western Orientalists all the antiquities of your country.

One piece of Egyptian antiquity is more important than all of your Quran.
Do you know why?
I already told you.
Your Quran is not the Quran!

More than a 100000 Islamic manuscripts can be found in Western libraries and you stupidly accept the fake science of the Westerners, which is a counterfeit science at the antipodes of the Islamic science.

That's why the ignorant lunatic criminal Benjamin Netanyahu, who is not a Jew but a real enemy of all the true Jews, can do whatever he likes to you all, because you are nothing.

And you will be nothing, and you will die like the Palestinians of Gaza, and you will go to the Hell that you deserve, because throughout your lives you endlessly insult Allah by not using the intellect that He bestowed upon you.

Avoid focusing, studying, analyzing and comprehending what happened to you and why all Muslims reached the bottom of the decay,
avoid repenting,
avoid stopping your silly and useless prayers,
avoid starting from scratch to become Muslim after studying Al Farabi, Al Biruni, Tabari, Nizam al Mulk, etc., ...
... and you will see what terrible punishment will fall on you!

I am sorry for being so disappointing, but I had to tell you the truth and not silly, pleasant, convenient and hypocritical words.
Have a nice day!
